LOOKING TO TOMORROW

Sustainable Design and End-of-Life Solutions

While melamine is not biodegradable, Dalebrook is dedicated to creating products that prioritise durability and reusability. By extending product life we help minimise waste and reduce reliance on single-use alternatives.

Low Maintenance, Energy-Efficient Solutions

Dalebrook's products are crafted for ease of care and efficiency. Requiring minimal water and energy for cleaning, our solutions support sustainable operations without compromising on performance or durability.

Durability Meets Design

At Dalebrook, material selection and design are centred on longevity and performance. Our melamine products withstand the demands of professional use, providing lasting value while reducing the need for frequent replacements.

Reducing Waste, Reusing Materials

We actively minimise unnecessary packaging and focus on creating reusable solutions. By supporting circular practices and designing for material reuse, we aim to reduce waste and environmental impact throughout the product lifecycle.

Innovation for a Sustainable Future

Through ongoing research and innovation, we develop versatile, reusable products that anticipate future needs. By combining practicality with forward-thinking design, we help customers optimise their operations while minimising waste.

Responsible Materials

Melamine begins as pine wood, sourced from sustainable forests. The production process is energy-efficient, utilising a short heat exchange that takes no longer than two minutes to create a finished product. This method avoids the need for earth excavation and eliminates prolonged, high-energy consumption.

CRAFTED WITH SUSTAINABILITY IN MIND

Dalebrook's Commitment to Sustainability

At Dalebrook, sustainability is at the heart of our business. We are proud to take meaningful steps to ensure that our operations, products, and practices contribute positively to the environment. Our commitment is reflected in both the materials we use and the innovation we bring to the market.

Melamine and Sustainability

Melamine is a durable and reusable material, making it a practical choice for reducing reliance on single-use plastics. Its long-lasting nature ensures that products remain in use for extended periods, helping to minimise waste. By choosing melamine, businesses can invest in high-quality tableware and food display solutions that align with sustainable practices while maintaining exceptional performance and aesthetic appeal.

Our Sustainable Practices

- 🕒 Efficient Manufacturing: We continuously optimise production processes to reduce waste and energy consumption.
- 🕒 Long-Lasting Products: The durability of our products extends their lifecycle, minimising the need for frequent replacements and reducing overall resource consumption.
- 🕒 Recycling Initiatives: We are exploring ways to recycle melamine at the end of its lifecycle. For more information, please contact your account manager.

Looking Ahead

Dalebrook remains dedicated to ongoing innovation and improvements in sustainability. Our goal is to balance design excellence with environmental responsibility, offering products that support your sustainability objectives.

By choosing Dalebrook, you are partnering with a company committed to shaping a more sustainable future for the tableware and food display industry. Together, we can make a difference.

SUSTAINABILITY

While some materials listed as recyclable can technically be processed, not all are easily or widely recyclable through standard curbside recycling programs. For example, certain types of plastics require specialized facilities for proper recycling. We encourage you to check with your local recycling center to confirm which materials they accept. For items marked as non-recyclable, or if you are unsure about the recycling process, you are welcome to return them to us. Our commitment to sustainability ensures these items are responsibly managed and disposed of in an environmentally friendly way.

PLASTICS

MELAMINE

Outperforms traditional ceramic and is proven to be 4x stronger. Chip- and break-resistant, it's ideal for event caterers. A favourite among waiting staff, as it looks like ceramic but with half the weight.

There is a common misperception that plastics use a large amount of the world's petroleum. Less than 4% of the world's oil production goes into producing all types of plastics. PET accounts for less than half of 1%. PET is fully recyclable and a highly sustainable material. Every time a PET container is recycled, its petroleum feedstocks can be recaptured and reused.

POLYSTYRENE (PS)

100% recyclable. Our range of PS products is reusable and not intended for single use. It's our most popular platter range for caterers who need a reliable solution. Strong, lightweight, and ideal for canapés and outdoor events, making it the event caterer's number one choice of platter.
